

Ground Report India

The world is a global village. Poverty, Environment, Climate Change, Economy and Peace cannot be dealt or understood without understanding the ground realities of the major human-populations of the world. You have influences in policy making/mobilising/motivating/campaigning towards a better world at your end. We want to keep you informed with the ground realities to help you in policy makings/understandings, a contribution by us for your efforts towards a better world.

Ground Report India is a larger apolitical family of journalists, lawyers, social activists, professors, environmentalists, government officers, youths, students, businesspersons and political activists who believe in positive media and a better world.
