

IWMI-Tata Policy Research Program

Water, Energy, Climate, Agriculture, Livelihoods, Environment

Inviting young researchers, development professionals, journalists to contribute previously unpublished field-based research papers, case studies for

Annual Partners' Meet 2012

Session	Theme	Theme Manager
1	Studies of innovative approaches in improving the working of public irrigation schemes in major, medium or minor sectors	Meghna Brahmchari
2	Costs and benefits of piped distribution (authorized or unauthorized) of canal or tank water	Tushaar Shah
3	Livelihood impacts of water infrastructure created/renovated under MGNREGA	Shilp Verma
4.	Impacts of System of Rice Intensification	K. Palanisami
5.	Issues in expanding groundwater irrigation in eastern India	Aditi Mukherji
6.	Impact of farm power supply policies on agriculture and rural development	Nisha Nair
7.	Water quality deterioration and its impact on public health	Sunderrajan Krishnan
8.	Performance of policies and programs for promoting micro-irrigation	K Palanisami
9.	Gender and equity issues in irrigated agriculture	Seema Kulkarni
10.	Water harvesting and groundwater recharge in a basin/catchment context	Shilp Verma

Researchers are invited to submit field-based research papers, thought pieces, review articles on any of the 9 themes. The submission should reach ITP by January 15, 2012 and not exceed 4500 words. Submission of a paper is no guarantee of selection by the theme manager for presentation in the Meet. IWMI-Tata Program will provide travel support to the lead author of each selected submission to participate in the Meet at Anand, Gujarat and present her/his paper. In addition, an honorarium of Rs 20,000 will be provided for each selected entry.

Submissions should be mailed to:
t.shah@cgiar.org

Tushaar Shah
IWMI-Tata Policy Research Program
C/O INREM Foundation
Smruti Park, Opp. Mangalpura
Anand 388001, Gujarat
+91-2692-263816/7
+91-9825931984