

Workshop on “Sustainable Energy and Water Financing Opportunities” - IFC, 14th March, 2011, New Delhi

IFC, India cordially invite you to participate in the upcoming workshop on "Sustainable Energy and Water Financing Opportunities", at India Habitat, Center, New Delhi on March 14, 2011. This is a one day workshop scheduled from 9 AM to 5 PM on March 14th. Participation in the workshop is by invitation only and major set of stake-holders being invited to the workshop are financial intermediaries like microfinance Institutions/NBFCs, Technology Providers & Manufacturers and Financial Institutions / Development Financial Institutions. The major objective of the workshop is to understand the issues and opportunities around promoting and financing sustainable energy, water and sanitation interventions for the households.

IFC would like to share our experiences & priorities in this space, and we also hope to learn from the speakers and participants to help shape our upcoming program. The workshop will have three panel discussions focussing on operational issues, challenges and opportunities from the perspective of 1) practitioners / implementing agencies, 2) technology providers and manufacturers, and 3) funding agencies viz. Banks & DFIs.

Through this effort, we expect to bring synergy amongst the identified players for a focussed approach and play a catalytic role in supporting the financing part of the value chain. Tentative program schedule and venue details will be forwarded to you shortly.

At this point, we request you to block the date and confirm your participation in the workshop.

For any details, please do not hesitate to contact me at ggollapudi@ifc.org.
You can also call me on 9323486886.

You can send confirmation mail or nomination to Ms. Anahita Kotwal at Akotwal@ifc.org
We look forward to hearing from you soon and latest by March 4, 2011.
